

NEW WORLD ORDER

ABOUT THIS PRODUCT

Our product "New World Order" is a trivial board game that illustrates how one should take action. Our board game is used to give logical actions based on geographical disaster.

DESCRIBE YOUR STORY

At the beginning you are a proposed a question that tests your knowledge of natural disaster or survival situations.

The questions will require you to critically think using collaboration, or answering individually of the correct answer that best suits the question.

Lastly, you will find the best course of action which will allow the player to continue traveling on the map.
